All in a day's work

Each year the RSPCA Southport, Ormskirk & District Branch and its Animal Centre in Southport cares for hundreds of animals that are brought in by the RSPCA Inspectorate Team and members of the public. Some are found abandoned or injured and others are victims of cruelty and neglect. Some are simply not wanted any more.

Dogs

Marvin came into our care via the RSPCA Inspectorate (his former owner was being prosecuted for cruelty). Initially he had a number of behavioral issues making him difficult to rehome. After featuring in a photo shoot in London (yes, he had a day out in London) and him appearing on a TV Christmas Special of Dog Rescuers (Channel 5) an owner prepared to make the changes necessary for Marvin applied to adopt him. Marvin and his new family often drop by to say hello. He always remembers us and will always have a special place in our hearts.

Please help our rescue dogs by sponsoring one of our Kennels

Cats

Pammi & Sally required a special home with an experienced, understanding owner to allow them plenty of time to adjust to their new environment. The good news is they were eventually re-homed together, which is something we usually try to do if they come to us as a pair. They have settled in well to their new home.

Please help our abandoned, injured and unwanted cats by sponsoring one of our Cat Pens

Smalls

We tend to specialise in Cats & Dogs these days, but from time to time we have a special Visitor. Meet Bobbi the Quaker Parrot. Bobbi was much loved by his previous owner, but noise problems saw him re-homed to our very own Branch Manager, having kept a number of these magnificent creatures for many years.

Any monthly donation to help small mammals, birds and wildlife brought in from time to time would be appreciated

Animal Centre Statistics

For most of the time the Animal Centre is a hive of activity and it is quite usual for us to be full, with space only being available for a short time as an animal leaves us. We re-home about 350 animals a year. Animals are always carefully placed in kennels upon arrival depending upon their temperament and needs. All animals see a vet upon arrival and throughout their stay. I'm sure that if they could, they would try to book back in with us for a holiday each year!

Please help them to enjoy their stay until we can find them a new and happy home

HOW DO I BECOME A SAFE HAVEN SPONSOR?

Signing up is easy. The hardest part is deciding which to choose.

Dog Kennel, or Cat Pod

You will need to decide whether you would like to do this for yourself, as a gift for someone else, or perhaps in memory of a much loved person or pet. The monthly amount you contribute is entirely up to you. All that is needed is completion of the registration and standing order forms.

We will reward your kindness by:

- Displaying your name on our 'Safe Haven' display board. (Please give us permission in the details of sponsorship)
- Sending you newsletters detailing the work of the Branch.
- Giving you a 'Safe Haven' Sponsorship Certificate.
